The Nordic studies program enables students who enter St. Olaf with advanced competence in Norwegian (or another Nordic language) or those who wish a more interdisciplinary approach than that offered by the Norwegian major an opportunity to pursue their interest in Nordic language, culture, and society.

Overview of the Concentration
The Nordic studies concentration at St. Olaf College is designed to meet the needs of students who wish a more interdisciplinary study of the Nordic cultures than that offered through the Norwegian major. The Nordic studies concentration is an interdisciplinary study of the language, literature, history, and culture of the Nordic countries. It is a self-designed combination of courses, approved by the Director of Nordic Studies, who is also the chair of the Norwegian Department.

Special Programs
The Norwegian Department sponsors many speakers and activities relevant to the Nordic studies concentration such as the annual Christmas service and Seventeenth of May celebration and provides students with the opportunity to live in a language house with a native speaker assistant. The Norwegian-American Historical Association, a rich source of information on Norwegian immigration, is housed in Rølvaag Memorial Library. Many students choose to study in a Nordic country on a variety of programs such as the Oslo International Summer School (http://catalog.stolaf.edu/international-domestic-off-campus-studies/other-semester-year-long-programs/#scandinavia) and the St. Olaf-sponsored programs in Norway (http://catalog.stolaf.edu/international-domestic-off-campus-studies/other-semester-year-long-programs/#scandinavia) and Denmark (http://catalog.stolaf.edu/international-domestic-off-campus-studies/other-semester-year-long-programs/#scandinavia). Norwegian professors also participate in the Foreign Language Across the Curriculum (FLAC) (http://catalog.stolaf.edu/academic-programs/foreign-languages-across-curriculum) program, collaborating with disciplinary professors to offer students the opportunity to use their foreign language skills in selected courses in other departments.

Requirements
The Nordic studies concentration consists of five courses. At least two of the five courses must have a focus on at least one Nordic country other than Norway.
